TITLE IX:

Responding to Discrimination on the Basis of Sex in K-12 School Systems

About this Event

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 (20 USC §1681 et seq.) is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity, including

K-12 public schools. Title IX was first signed into law on June 23, 1972 and is considered a civil rights statute. The Title IX regulations (34 CFR Part 106) were significantly amended and effective August 14, 2020. The new regulations contain six distinct requirements for K-12 school systems; all six outcomes will be addressed in this course:

1. Program compliance (athletics/extra-curricular activities) and instructional courses (single sex/co-educational)
2. Adopt Title IX policies and procedures that comply with current law
3. Monitor and report Title IX violations (systemic and individual)
4. Investigate Title IX complaints (formal and informal)
5. Conduct Title IX hearing proceedings (optional for K-12 school systems)
6. Communicate investigation results and offer supportive measures (interim and formal)
