

Love Shouldn't Hurt

Teen Dating Violence Conference

Register in advance:

https://us06web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_yzW-7UW2TPOHw4Nr1tCl6A

Participants will explore the impact of teen dating violence on teens, their peers, and their caregivers. They will learn what teen dating violence is according to teens and professionals; and how to handle it when you spot it. Participants will explore generational cycles and how domestic violence, ACEs (Adverse Childhood Experiences), substance misuse, and teen dating violence are interconnected. They will also learn about resources and how to help caregivers and teens deal with all these issues.

Speakers Include:

Prevent Child Abuse Illinois

Brittney Hale, Program Assistant

Amber Anderson, Southern Region Prevention Specialist

The Women's Center

Carlee Coplea, Prevention Educator

Arrowleaf

Emily Lind, Assistant Director of Community Grants

Alisha Foster, Assistant Director of Community Resources and Prevention

SIU School of Medicine

Ginger Meyer, Clinical Director

Abi Cowser-Barnett, Medical Social Associate

February 15, 2022

8:30am-3:30pm

FREE Virtual Training

Free PDs for educators and CEUs are available LCPC/LPC, LCSW/LSW, and LPN/RN/APN

Presented By

S7 CAP COALITION

1.5 million

teens experience dating abuse of some form each year. Only 33% ask for help.

(loveisrespect.org)

Contact Amber Anderson at aanderson@pcaillinois.org for more information.